

Join the World YWCA and Partners for the following
Panel Discussion Event at CSW

Human Rights, Security and Young Women: Strengthening Protection and Leadership on UNSCR 1325

Organised in collaboration with Women's International League for Peace and Freedom (WILPF)
and FOKUS

Wednesday March 6, 2013, Time: 16.30 - 18.00
Chapel, 1st Floor, United Nations Church Centre, New York

Co-Moderators: Sarah Arumugam, Project Coordinator, YWCA of Sri Lanka and Marie-Claude Julsaint, Global Programme Manager for Violence Against Women, World YWCA.

Speakers:

- Magda Lopez, YWCA of Colombia,
- Naheel Bazbazat, YWCA of Palestine
- Shyamala Gomez, FOKUS Women Sri Lanka
- Habiba Rizaan Osman, NCA, Malawi
- Josefine Karlsson, WILPF-Sweden

Closing Remarks:

- Tor Kjetil Edland, International Programmes Manager, KFUK-KFUM Global / Y-Global
- Nyaradzayi Gumbonzvanda, General Secretary World YWCA.

This moderated dialogue will share the impact of insecurity and conflict on young women's human rights and how young women are mobilising on peace, security and human rights issues and contributing to implementation of UNSCR 1325. It will also provide recommendations to governments for the protection of young women's rights and security in times of conflict and delivering on the responsibility to protect.